SCHLESWIG-HOLSTEIN AND BAY OF KIEL

Schleswig-Holstein is the maritime vacation state between the North Sea and the Baltic Sea. In the state capital Kiel everything revolves around the fjord. There are not only the harbor and beach resorts, but also many interesting museums. Ferries to Scandinavia and the Baltic States depart daily from the port. In Kiel-Holtenau are the locks into the Kiel Canal, the busiest artificial waterway in the world. So if you want to get to know the city, the best place to start is on the water. A harbor tour or a trip by ferry to the naval memorial in Laboe should not be missed. The surrounding area with Holstein Switzerland and the Eckernförde Bay is also definitely worth a trip!

BERLIN

Berlin is still Germany's number one metropolis and is one of the most important and popular city break destinations in Europe. In addition to world history, museums and nightlife, the city offers something for every taste. »Who needs a new airport if he's not rich but sexy,« the Merian once wrote. This has not changed until today. Berlin can be had cheaply or expensively stylishly; you can discover it thoroughly at length or just immerse yourself in it briefly – it is an experience in any case.

BREMEN AND BREMERHAVEN

Bremen - North German Hanseatic City with Charm

The market place with the magnificent town hall and the stone Roland – since June 2004 included in the UNESCO World Heritage List – is the 'good room' of the hanseatic city and certainly one of the most beautiful places in Germany. The famous Bremen Town Musicians are also a must on a tour of the city! A centerpiece full of tradition is the Böttcherstraße.

Of course, a trip to Bremen would not be complete without a visit to the seaside town of Bremerhaven. Maritime flair and large ships await you here. Enjoy a stroll through the 'Schaufenster Fischereihafens, a maritime attraction without equal in Northern Germany. In the historic part of the fishing port, the 'Miles was created with maritime stores, restaurants, cafes, the fish station and much more.

PAPENBURG, MEYER WERFT, EAST FRISIA

Home of the ocean giants! In the tranquil town of Papenburg on the Ems River, Europe's largest covered dry dock is located on the grounds of the Meyer Werft shipyard. Here, some of the largest ocean voyages, e.g. from AIDA or NCL, are launched every year and transferred to the North Sea via the Ems. Papenburg is also an ideal base from which to explore the highlights of East and West Frisia. These include the charming town of Leer, the imposing Ems barrage at Gandersum, and romantic Groningen in the Netherlands. A guided tour of the Ammerland region and a guided tour of the historic Dutch fortress town of Bourtange are also recommended.

FEDERAL GARDEN EXHIBITION MANNHEIM

The Federal Garden Exhibition as a guest in the Kurpfalz region. Mannheim – the second largest city in Baden-Württemberg after Stuttgart – is the host of the Federal Garden Exhibition 2023. More than 40 years earlier, in 1975, the horticultural exhibition was already a guest here and left its mark. Back then, the Luisenpark – now a popular destination for recreation-seekers – served primarily as an exhibition area. This time, a garden exhibition of superlatives is being created on the grounds of the former US barracks >Spinelli-Barracks <? The project is crowned by a cable car, which reaches from the Luisenpark and across the Neckar River to the Spinelli grounds, offering visitors a great panorama. Crossing the Rhine near Mannheim, one is already in the >wine country Palatinate <? Here the visitor finds a southern idyll, excellent wines and a hearty and delicious cuisine.

FEDERAL GARDEN EXHIBITION MANNHEIM

The Federal Garden Exhibition as a guest in the Rhine-Neckar metropolitan region, the border triangle of Baden-Württemberg, Hesse and Rhineland-Palatinate. The former royal seat of the Electoral Palatinate, Mannheim, is the host of The Federal Garden Exhibition 2023, a horticultural exhibition of superlatives. Heidelberg, Heilbronn or Karlsruhe can also be reached quickly thanks to the central location and optimal transport connections. Around Heidelberg, along the Neckar River, there are some beautiful castles and palaces, first and foremost, of course, the imposing Heidelberg Castle with its famous wine barrel.

Karlsruhe Castle forms the center of the >Fächerstadt<

CASTLE ROAD AND HEILBRONN WINE REGION

Castle Road, Neckar Valley and Kraichgau

The Castle Road runs from Mannheim to Bayreuth and is one of the oldest vacation routes in Germany. There are 60 castles and palaces to admire along the 780-kilometer route.

The region between Heidelberg and Heilbronn is particularly attractive because there are so many sights to see in a relatively small area. Heidelberg is synonymous with romance par excellence, followed by the Neckar Valley with its defiant knight's castles. In the Kraichgau wine country, also called the land of 1,000 hills, the great German wine-growing regions of Baden and Württemberg meet.

WORTH VISITING Heidelberg • Neckar valley • Gundelsheim • Bad Rappenau • Bad Wimpfen • Heilbronn • Kraichgau wine country • boat trip on the Neckar • Sinsheim technology museum.

HANSEATIC YEAR 2023 IN THE NETHERLANDS

For the year 2023, the Dutch Hanseatic cities along the Ijssel are planning a series of events to celebrate the common former affiliation to this medieval confederation of cities. Along the Ijssel and Lake Veluwe, the Hanseatic cities of Doesburg, Zutphen, Deventer, Hattem, Zwolle, Hasselt, Kampen, Elburg and Harderwijk line up like pearls on a string. The cities impress with beautiful architecture, charming harbors and historic city centers. They are worth a trip all year round.

The following trips are only a small selection of the many possibilities. We would be happy to create customized offers for you.

From April to December, there are many events in the Hanseatic cities that can be easily visited with a group.

» Note: The exact calendar of events was not yet available at the time of printing.

IN THE HEART OF HOLLAND

The hotels in the area of Hilversum, Amersfoort and Utrecht are ideally located for multi-day trips to the Netherlands. The lipsselmeer, Amsterdam and the North Sea coast are within easy reach, as are Leiden, Delft, The Hague and Rotterdam. Utrecht is one of the oldest cities in the Netherlands, rivaling Amsterdam in beauty. Once you have climbed the 465 steps to the top of the cathedral tower, you will have a unique view over the city. The >Oude Gracht is one of the city's lifelines and on its banks are cozy cafes and restaurants. A boat trip on the canals can give you a particularly beautiful impression of the sights of the city.

The Koppelpoort in Amersfoort, a medieval city and water gate, offers a fairytale sight

BREDA - WHERE YOU FEEL GOOD!

Breda has been awarded for the best city center in the Netherlands, as it has numerous street cafes, trendy restaurants and excellent shopping addresses. The Onze-Lieve-Vrouwekerk is the most important monument and also a landmark of Breda. The so-called >Spanjaardsgata reminds visitors of the times when Breda was in the hands of the Spanish. Breda Castle, in turn, shows the historical relationship between Breda and the Order of Oranien-Nassau. The ancestors of the Dutch royal family, the Nassaus, were of great importance to the city. Breda's privileged location makes it particularly suitable for trips to North Brabant combined with visits to Antwerp, Zeeland or Rotterdam.
